

Newport Mercury

VOLUME CXXXII—No. 42. NEWPORT, R. I., MARCH 29, 1890. WHOLE NUMBER 6854.

The Newport Mercury, —PUBLISHED BY—
JOHN P. SANBORN,
182 THAMES STREET,
NEWPORT, R. I.

THE NEWPORT MERCURY was established in June, 1759, and is now in its one hundred and thirty-third year. It is the oldest newspaper in the United States, and with less than half a century's experience, the oldest printed in the English language. It is a large quarto weekly of fifty columns, filled with interesting reading—national, state, local and general news, well selected miscellany and valuable farmers' and household departments. Reaching so many households in this and other States, the paper is given to advertising in a very valuable and profitable manner.

TERMS: $2.00 a year in advance. Single copies in wrappers, 5 cents. Extra copies can always be obtained at the office of publication, and at the various news rooms in the city.

Special notices sent free, and special rates given advertisers by addressing the publisher.

Local Matters.

Fitting up the Polling Places.

Mr. Samuel H. Oxx, who was given the contract to fit up the several polling places in the city to conform to the requirements of the new ballot law, is making good headway and will have everything in readiness for next Wednesday morning. Having got the dimensions of the several polling places, he is using the old No. 1 engine house on Hill street, which is to serve as the Third ward ward room, as a work shop and is getting his "stuff" out there. He has got most of his stalls together and will begin to day the work of putting them up together with the rails, etc., in the several places selected as the ward rooms. The number of stalls for each room is governed by the number of names on the voting list, they will be as follows: First ward, 10; Second ward, 9; Third ward, 6; Fourth ward, 5; Fifth ward 10. Mr. Oxx has built these stalls in sections of three and five. He has built six of the former sections and seven of the latter, which gives one surplus section of each.

Death of Capt. Melville.

Captain Benjamin Sherman Melville, to whose illness attention has been called in these columns at various times during the past winter, died at his residence on Clark street Thursday evening, aged 68 years. Capt. Melville was a native of Newport, being a son of the late David Melville, and most active part of his life was spent in following the sea. He made many voyages to the West Indies as master of different vessels, first in the service of G. C. & W. J. Munro, then of Peckham & Bull, and later of the Munros again. While with the latter firm he commanded the brig John Balch and the barque Ariel, and during his connection with Messrs. Peckham & Bull he was in charge of the Confidence, of which he was part owner. He leaves no children, but a widow and two brothers, Mr. Geo. W. T. Melville, of this city, and Capt. Samuel Melville, of Brooklyn, and two sisters, Mrs. Geo. C. Munro and Miss Sarah M. Melville, of this city, survive him. The funeral will be solemnized from his late residence next Monday at noon.

Artillery Appropriation.

In the Senate of the General Assembly on Thursday the Finance committee reported back the resolution making an appropriation of $3000 for the Newport Artillery Company's Armory, without recommendation. Senator Franklin moved the passage of the resolution by the Senate and made a lengthy and convincing argument showing why the appropriation should be made. When the vote was taken the measure was carried almost unanimously. Senator Franklin immediately had the bill sent to the house under suspension of the rules.

At a meeting of Charles E. Lawton Post Wednesday evening the following committee was appointed to act with a committee from General G. K. Warren Post in the arrangements for the observance of Decoration Day, Friday, May 30:—Comrade John E. Lake, Junior Vice Commander Gilbert Fowler, Past Commander William S. Bailey, Officer of the Day A. R. Tuell and Comrade Jacob C. Chase.

Judge Clinton Gray of New York, and Mrs. Grace Townsend Turnbull were united in marriage Monday evening at the bride's beautiful villa on Kay street and Cranston avenue, by Rev. Dr. Cutler, pastor of Channing Memorial church. It was a very quiet affair, but few guests being present, and Tuesday morning Judge and Mrs. Gray started for Florida.

Alderman Cottrell finds lying in bed a somewhat tedious occupation, but the constant improvement to his legs sufficient encouragement for him to bear it. He hopes to be out again in the course of a week or two.

SUPREME COURT.

March Term.

The Supreme Court opened its March term in Newport Monday morning and has been kept busy ever since. There is much yet to be done, however, and after the criminal cases, which are set down for next Thursday, there will be an adjourned session, probably about the first of May. There are several court cases to be heard the first of next week, but the jury will be excused to-day until next Thursday.

The docket was called and certain cases disposed of as follows: Continual—Isaac P. Hazard et al. vs. Thomas C. Durant et al., two cases; Samuel E. Almy vs. Daniel T. Church et al.; Patrick J. Murphy vs. Joseph Haire; Joseph Groves et al. vs. Dennis W. Sheehan et al. (nisi); Henry D. Scott et al. vs. Ellen McKean et al.; Benjamin Fitch vs. William S. Bailey; George H. Kelley et al. vs. Thomas P. Nichols (nisi); James T. Maher et al. vs. James B. Clanch et al. (nisi); State vs. John Reynolds, appellant; Joseph Bradford et al. vs. William J. Swinburne; Samuel S. Southwick et al. vs. William H. Bliss (nisi); William J. Underwood et al. vs. Cyrus H. Peckham; Brush Electric Company vs. Brush Electric Company; Thomas S. Nason vs. Amos D. Mitchell (nisi); John H. Steelman vs. American Electric Manufacturing Company; Charles A. Seabury vs. Hattie B. Almy; Charles H. Deere et al. vs. Ovison S. Marden et al. Discontinued—Herbert S. Milliken, Assignee vs. Lorenzo Littlefield et al.; Daniel Brown et al. vs. Stephen Browning et al., executors; Letitia G. Tuttle vs. George F. Tuttle. Settled—James Whitall et al. vs. Howard N. Hazard; Charles A. Wellington vs. Samuel S. Howland; John D. Sullivan vs. Michael Donovan.

The hearings before the Court included the case of Mary Catherine Grinnell et al. vs. A. P. Baker, Administrator, et alios; the petition for a new trial in the Stacy will case; the demurrer in the case of Plagg vs. Gilpin; the case of Silas Carr et al. vs. Annie Carr; the case of W. P. Sheffield, Jr., assignee, vs. James F. Hammond et al., et al.

The first case tried by jury was that of H. N. Jeter, Administrator, vs. Lewis T. Moore et alios, an appeal from the local probate court. The jury failed to agree after about five hours of deliberation.

In the case of David King vs. Patrick Fagan, for trespass, the jury rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff and damages were assessed at 10 cents.

The grand jury reported six indictments as follows: John Quinn, breaking and entering; William Cower, alias Billy Martin, larceny; Frank L. Allen, manslaughter; James S. Smith, obstructing street cars; Mary Bowler, larceny. Upon being arraigned, Quinn pleaded guilty and was sentenced to five years in the State prison; Allen pleaded not guilty and was held in the sum of $1000; Smith pleaded not guilty and was released on bail.

The case on trial as we go to press is that of Samuel Bickerton vs. Newport Street Railway Company appellant. It is one of several cases against the company resulting from the accident on Bath road last August. About twenty witnesses were called for the prosecution yesterday, and their evidence, including a visit to the company's car house on Commercial wharf and a trip to the beach in one of the electric cars by the jury, occupied most of the day, the respondents entering upon their case at 2:30 in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Lawton, of this city, left Wednesday night for Annapolis, Md., whither they were called by the serious illness of Mrs. Peleg Gibbs, sister of Mr. Lawton. Mrs. Gibbs is suffering from cancer in the throat, from which there is no hope of cure, and a dispatch received from Mr. Lawton Thursday night stated that she was sinking rapidly. Mrs. Gibbs is a daughter of Sarah and the late William Lawton, and she has three brothers and three sisters residing in this city, Messrs. William S. George and Henry, and Mrs. Edward Otto, Mrs. William G. Peckham, 2d and Mrs. William Rose.

Mr. Gardiner T. Lawton, a half-brother of Mr. George P. Lawton of this city, died suddenly in San Francisco on the 14th of February. He was a native of Portsmouth and was formerly a sea captain out of New Bedford. He has lived in San Francisco since 1853, and has amassed a large fortune.

Ex-Alderman William Hamilton is confined to his home on Bridge street by a serious illness. His trouble began with severe pains in his knee, coming on quite suddenly, and his sufferings have been very severe.

A burning chimney at the residence of Mr. Gardner S. Perry caused considerable excitement in that vicinity Sunday afternoon, but did no other damage.

At the earnest solicitation of many who desire to see his bayonet of Capt. James Logan, Mr. Noble has consented to open his studio in Covell's Block to the public this evening from 7 to 10 o'clock.

Artillery Armory Improvements.

The long needed improvements to the Artillery Armory on Clark street, to obtain the necessary funds for which the company have indefatigably worked for years, are finally to be begun. The committee appointed some time ago to obtain plans and estimates reported at Tuesday evening's meeting and their report was adopted. The plans were drawn by Col. James Fludder of this city and they call for a new story over the entire present building with some changes in the armory proper. The new story is to be finished in four rooms, two of which will measure 45x27 feet and be connected with large sliding doors; the other two apartments will be an officers' room and a quartermaster's room. The two small rooms which now occupy the rear end of the armory will be torn away and the space devoted to broad stairways leading to the new story. There will be two of these stairways, one starting at each side of the armory and meeting on a broad platform over the center from which a single flight of steps will lead to the rooms above. The stair case is to be exposed and as designed will make a very ornamental and to the armory proper. The front of the landing to the two flights of stairs forms an open balcony which on festive occasions may be used by the orchestra, and a large open live-place, with carved mantle, will make a handsome background beneath this landing or platform. The plans also call for a large bay window over the main entrance, on the Clark street front, and make the new rooms twelve feet "between joints." The committee in charge of the improvements is as follows: Lieutenant Colonel Geo. A. Brown, chairman; Private J. H. Martin, secretary; Adjutant J. H. Wetherell, treasurer; Surgeon C. E. Barker and Paymaster Edward T. Bosworth.

The committee appointed by the City Council to build and equip the new schoolhouse in the Second ward held a meeting at the Clark street school Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of selecting the furniture. Superintendent of Schools Fay and School Committee W. P. Clarke were also present. Five of the leading manufacturers of school furniture were represented by agents to whom the various styles of desks and seats were duly exhibited and their respective merits feelingly explained. The committee finally settled unanimously upon the Winchester, which is a desk and chair, separate, and which, principally on this account, would be better adapted for the schools.

Mr. Samuel Hilton, who died at his home in Washington Tuesday, was a brother of Mr. John Hilton of this city; and he himself was a resident of Newport for many years. He was, like his brother, a tinsmith by trade, and was in the employ of the late William H. Bliss. At the breaking out of the rebellion he enlisted in Company F, First Rhode Island Volunteers, and subsequently in the Fourth regiment. After the war he was post steward at Fort Adams and later a drug clerk in the army in California and in Alaska. At the time of his death he was filling a responsible position in the Surgeon General's office in Washington. He leaves a widow and three sons.

They have a great invention in Paris, known as the telegraph postal card. The cards are blown by pneumatic dispatch from central stations to the postal bureau nearest their address, and are then delivered by messenger boys. There is an enormous consumption of them by business and professional people. Open cards of this kind are delivered anywhere in Paris within an hour after they are mailed for six centes closed ones, giving as much room as an ordinary letter, for ten centes. It would be a good thing to have such kind of cards in the large cities of this country.

Redwood Lodge No. 11, K. of P., which meets in the Mercury Hall, is increasing in membership with great rapidity. On the evening of April 8th, a large number of the fraternity from Fall River will make a fraternal visit to Redwood Lodge. They will bring with them their degree team and will exemplify the third degree. The members of the order anticipate a very pleasant occasion.

Mr. Frank Nixdorf, son-in-law of Mr. John Brown of this city, is critically ill at his residence in Brooklyn with congestion of the lungs, and his death is momentarily expected. Mrs. Brown left here Thursday night and is now with her daughter.

Right Rev. Thomas M. Clarke, D. D., Bishop of this diocese, will be in town to-morrow and administer the rite of confirmation to a large number of candidates at St. George's and Emmanuel churches, at the former at 11 A. M., and at the latter at the evening service.

The damage to Mr. T. J. Potter's residence has been adjusted and settled by Mr. Henry Bull, Jr., through whose agency the property was insured. Messrs. Charles H. Barwick and Fred A. Allen were the appraisers and $400 was the amount rendered.

The People's Favorite Order.

A council of the People's Favorite Order was instituted at Mercury Hall, Wednesday evening, by Supreme Council Walter Mott, M. D., and Supreme Secretary Charles H. Curtis, of Boston. About seventy-five of the one hundred and forty members were present and much interest was taken in the organization which promises well for the success of the new Council. Interesting remarks were made by the two visitors from the Supreme Council, in explanation of the objects and merits of the order, which is on the endorsement principle, and all seemed satisfied. The name selected for the new society is Hope Council No. 3, and the officers elected are as follows:

Con. Sec.—William Allen.
Vice Con. Sec.—J. H. Constock.
Past Con. Sec.—George H. Apple.
Sitting Post.—George A. Pritchard.
Recording Secretary—George T. Bonds.
Financial Secretary—George H. Apple.
Treasurer—Arthur H. Apple.
Past Master—H. H. Apple.
Inside Guard—J. D. Parr.
Outside Guard—William T. Watson.
The council is made up of 75 members, divided into 12 months, 12, 12, 12, 12, 12, 12, 12, 12, 12, 12, 12, 12.

General Warren Post at the National Encampment.

Past Commander James H. Barney, Senior Vice Commander J. L. Greene and Quartermaster Joseph P. Cotton, a committee of General G. K. Warren Post, No. 21, G. A. R., were in Boston Tuesday and seemed much at home at the headquarters for the Post during the national encampment of the Grand Army which is to be held in that city next August. The Post will be represented in the grand parade, when fully sixty thousand veterans are expected to be in line, and its rooms at the Moody House will be kept throughout the week not for its own convenience alone but for all Newporters who may be in the city during that time. The rooms will be in charge of some officer of the Post who will be prepared to give any information desired regarding the encampment.

Our colored citizens held an enthusiastic meeting at their hall on Spring street Wednesday evening. Rev. Mahlon Van Housen presided and Mr. W. H. Jackson acted as secretary. Telling addresses were made by Mr. Van Housen, Editor Henderson of Providence, Rev. D. N. Jeter, Col. F. G. Harris and others and when the meeting adjourned all seemed confident of Republican success next Wednesday. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Geo. P. H. Watson Republican League.

Prof. Wolcott Gibbs of Cambridge entertained a large audience at the Business Men's Association rooms Monday evening in a lecture upon Illuminating Gas. It was an able discourse and held the close attention of the audience. Mayor Coggeshall followed Prof. Gibbs in a brief address upon the same subject. The meeting was presided over by Mr. L. D. Davis.

Mr. Stephen DeBois, youngest son of ex-Alderman H. D. DeBois, has left the Rogers High School to become a farmer. He has associated himself with his brother, Mr. H. D. DeBois, Jr., in Middletown and gives promise of being a thorough agriculturist ere he reaches his majority. He certainly possesses two of the principal requisites—industry and economy.

The Right Rev. Thomas M. Clarke, D. D., LL. D., will visit St. George's Church tomorrow, (Palm Sunday), at 11 o'clock, and administer the rite of Confirmation and hold an ordination service. Bishop Clarke will be the guest of Mrs. H. Allen Wright, 135 Rhode Island avenue.

The Democratic City Committee have selected Mr. Daniel B. Peering as their party candidate for school committee next Wednesday. The Republicans will nominate their candidate in caucus at the State House Monday night.

Mr. J. M. R. Southwick is soon to receive from the fish commission of this state a supply of gold fish for general distribution among such ponds in this vicinity as shall be found adapted to their cultivation.

King Philip Conclave, K. of S. F., of Fall River is to make a fraternal visit to Newport Conclave on the 5th proximo, and a delegation of King Philip Knights was in town Tuesday to make arrangements for the visit.

Mr. Stephen S. Vars, Newport's veteran Knight of the Whip, is just now busily engaged upon his sixteenth annual Trades Book which will be issued from this office about the middle of the coming month.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith of the United Congregational church quartette choir have received a call from St. Anne Episcopal church in New York. It is sincerely hoped that they will conclude to remain in Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sampson are receiving the congratulations of their many friends in Newport and elsewhere. His name is Madeline Atleton and its weight ten pounds.

Real Estate Sales and Rentals.

Mr. Philip H. Case has rented his cottage on the corner of Kay and Everett streets, for the coming season, to Mr. H. A. Johnson, of New York.

Abraham A. Tiley has sold about 2000 square feet of land with buildings, on Gibbs street and Congdon avenue, to Herbert C. Tiley for $1, etc.

Judge Darius Baker has rented his cottage on Cranston avenue to Miss Laura J. Post, of New York, for the season.

A. Prescott Baker has sold for Mary P. White 5000 square feet of land with buildings, numbered 28 Spruce street, to Timothy Tierney and wife for $1700.

William Brophy has sold his estate, measuring 15 feet on Lee's wharf, to Sumner M. Stewart for $1, etc.

Amey A. and Uriah H. Card have sold all their right title and interest in and to the estate on Elm street adjoining lands of Robert Hamilton and Caroline Cornell, to Rhoda E. Card for $1, etc.

Messrs. Whipple & Derry have sold for Mrs. Susan Gray, executrix, the Gray estate on Bellevue avenue, opposite the Redwood Library, to the Newport Safe Deposit and Trust Company.

Prohibitory Mass Meeting.

The prohibitionists of this county held a ratification meeting at the Opera House Tuesday evening and it was rather more enjoyable than such meetings are apt to be. There was a large audience of ladies and gentlemen; the speaking was good and the Mandolin and Guitar Quartette rendered a number of selections of excellent music. Mr. William B. Franklin presided, and after a prayer by Rev. William Jacob, introduced the speakers. Professor Dickie, of the national prohibition committee, was the first speaker. He held the attention of his audience for upwards of two hours, outlining the principles and hopes of the party, and was followed by Rev. J. H. Lary, the prohibitory nominee for governor, who also gave an interesting discourse.

Sunday Service Resumed.

Resumption of Sunday trips is announced by the Fall River line. On Sunday the connecting steamboat train leaves Boston at 7 A. M., an hour later than on week days. For time from other points newspapers or local agents should be consulted. The Pilgrim and Providence are now in service. The first mentioned vessel will however be withdrawn in favor of the Puritan, commencing April 1st.

Many have expressed the fear that now that Ex-Governor Van Zandt and wife have sold their elegant residence on Pelham street, they would cease to make Newport their permanent home. We are happy to state that they do not contemplate leaving Newport except for brief occasions as formerly. They are looking now for an eligible lot and when they find a place to their satisfaction they will buy and build a fine residence, one with more conveniences and more to their taste than the one they have just sold.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Stevens and Mr. and Mrs. William K. Covell, Jr., are enjoying a tour of the South. They left here on the 18th instant and will probably be absent ten days or a fortnight longer. They spent last Sunday in Savannah and in addition to other religious services the two gentlemen attended a baptizing at which there were 16 candidates and upwards of 15,000 spectators, all colored. Most of the present week has been spent by the travelers in Jacksonville, Florida.

At the adjourned annual meeting of the pewholders of the First Methodist Episcopal Church Monday evening Messrs. Thomas P. Peckham, J. W. Horton, C. T. Thuston, Thomas S. Burdick and T. T. Pitman were elected trustees; George H. Lovejoy, clerk, and T. T. Pitman, steward. A tax of eight percent was assessed upon the pews, to be due and payable on or before November 1 next, subject to a reduction of twenty-five percent, if paid on or before August 1.

Superintendent John D. Richardson, Jr., of the Second Baptist church Sunday school will deliver a lecture in the vestry of the church next Monday evening on the Phonograph, which instrument will be on exhibition and have something to say on its own behalf. The graphophone will also be exhibited in connection with the typewriter, and the whole is sure to make an instructive as well as interesting entertainment.

The unfortunate Music Hall is being torn down. If a suitable place can be found for it, it will probably be set up again in some shape or other. The owners have not yet fully decided what they will do with it.

There are two or three more new baptisms about to be organized in Newport. If this town keeps on it will be filled up soon.

The trials of the new torpedo boat Cushing have thus far been highly successful.

The Union Lenten service of the Episcopal churches Thursday was held at St. George's and was well attended.

CITY BRIEFS.

Settling of Newport and Newporters.

To-morrow will be Palm Sunday.

Mr. William Sharples is on the sick list.

Mr. Stephen H. Norman continues to improve.

Miss Kate P. Wormeley, of this city, has gone to Europe.

Mr. Henry C. Riley is still confined to his home by illness.

Mr. W. J. Huntington is suffering from a severe cold.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Kimball are at Old Point Comfort, Va.

Capt. A. R. Milliken, of Block Island, was in town Thursday.

Ex-Councilman James S. Hazard has been in New York this week.

Newport's prospects for a gay and brilliant season are of the best.

Mr. LeRoy King, who spent the winter in New York, has been in town this week.

Mr. L. F. Atleton expects to open The Aqueduct the first of May as usual.

Newport Bks were well represented at the Boston Lodge bet in Boston Thursday.

The Board of Aldermen meets this afternoon for a final caucus of the voting lists.

Prof. William Mathers, of the Newport Band, has been housed this week by a severe cold.

Mr. Albert Irish, who has been seriously ill for the past several months is reported improving.

The naval battalion at the training station made its first street parade of the season Monday afternoon.

Mr. Charles Gladding who has suffered several months' from illness this winter, is again seen upon his team.

Rhode Island Lodge No. 12, I. O. O. F., expect an official visitation from the Grand Lodge on the evening of April 7.

Rhode Island Lodge of Odd Fellows has furnished its lodge room with three new combination chandeliers of elegant design.

Rev. G. Ernest Magill, of New York, has been in town this week, the guest of his father, Rev. G. J. Magill, rector of Trinity Church.

Mr. J. S. Minge, formerly of this city, has accepted a responsible position in the grocery house of H. W. Spear & Co., of Boston.

The members of Clan McGregor, Order of Scottish Chiefs, will hold an anniversary social at Forrester's Hall next Friday evening.

There will be a caucus Monday night to nominate a School Committee man to fill out the unexpired term of Ex-Lieut. Governor Fay.

The Sunday school Teachers meeting will be omitted to day as tomorrow's lesson is a general review lesson for the quarter ending March 31st.

The Helping Hand Society held another of its entertaining and profitable meetings at Dr. Bradley's on High street, Tuesday evening.

There have been many visitors to Mr. Noble's studio this week to view his model in clay of Capt. James Logan. It is an admirable work of art.

The City Council will hold their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday evening next. There will be considerable business transacted at that time.

Superintendent Eastman, of the State Institutions, spent Tuesday in Newport as guest of Mayor Coggeshall, who is chairman of the State Board.

The Mission Band of the Second Baptist church held its annual entertainment in the vestry of the church Tuesday evening, and a very pleasing affair it was.

Mr. John H. Cottrell, superintendent of public buildings in Providence, has been in town this week, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cottrell on Spring street.

General Secretary Gibson of the Newport Y. M. C. A., attended the convention of general secretaries of New England in New Haven, returning Wednesday evening.

The Young People's Society of the First Baptist church gave a very pleasant entertainment of readings, recitations and music, Wednesday evening, in the church vestry.

The supervisors of election in the various wards will earn their money next Wednesday. They will have their hands full to attend to all the duties required of them.

Miss Mary S. Hammond, a professional nurse in the hospital at New Haven, Conn., is enjoying a well-earned vacation with her parents, Capt. and Mrs. E. S. Hammond, in this city.

A Chronology of Some Memorable Occurrences.

Prescribed by James C. Swan, The Seventh Age of the World. (Continued.)

1683. The battle of Lander in Flanders, was fought on the 26th of July. The tower of Lincolnton, fell suddenly, in which were 218 barrels of powder, which took fire and blew up, it greatly shattered the tower, killing 100 persons besides the wounded.

There were shocks of earthquakes in Sicily, which levelled Catania, and 49 other places to the ground and destroyed 100,000 persons.

1694. Mary, Queen of England, died of small pox.

1695. Mary Bacon, was burnt at Dublin, for the murder of her child.

Captain Walsh, a subject of England, but commanding a French privateer, was taken and hanged.

January 8th, was kept as a day of thanksgiving, in Dublin, for the preservation of his Majesty's person, and the taking of Namur, in the sight of the French army, though 100,000 strong.

In March, His Excellency, Lord Capel, and the council, on account of the late conspiracy, to assassinate his Majesty, signed an association in the council house, there to remain on record, as a testimony of their zeal and affection for King William.

The parliament of Ireland met on the 27th of July. They voted a supply of 164,325 pounds.

Pursuant to an act of parliament, the rolls, records, papers, etc., relating to the acts of attainder and other acts in the late King James's time, were cancelled and publicly burnt.

1698. March 30th, His Excellency, Lord Capel, died at Chapel-Izod, much lamented.

A proclamation was issued for apprehending Henry Every, the pirate, and his crew, several of whom were taken.

On the 10th, of November, the William, packet-boat with two mails, and about eighty passengers, (among whom was Brigadier Fitz Patrick O'Neal,) was cast away in a violent storm, in Dublin Bay, near Sutton: There was only the master and a boy saved.

1697. The magazine at Athlone, fired by lightning, blew up the castle, and several houses; and 14 persons were killed.

Peace with France was declared at Dublin on the 4th of November.

Upon the common address, His Majesty, King William, gave 30,000 pounds to Trinity College, Dublin, enabling it by some new additional buildings.

This year, Bartholomew Humfray, Esq., Lord Mayor of the city of Dublin, and being a person very favorable to the crown, obtained a collar of S. S. a Royal Donative, to the value of 1,000 pounds.

In February, Abraham le Grove was executed, and hung in irons, below King's-End, for a horrid murder of a Dutch skipper, in Dublin, whose body was cut into joints and cast into the river, but most of it was found.

1698. The parliament of Ireland levies a tax of 120,000 pounds.

1699. The parliament of England vest the forfeited estates in Ireland, in thirteen trustees, to be sold for the public use, notwithstanding several grants already made; allowing the purchasers under the grantees a third part of their money, and afterwards another third part.

The trustees at Chester House (where the commons used to sit) to execute their trust, which ended July, 1722.

1700. The Duke of Gloucester, a prince of early hopes, died at Windsor, July, 30th, in the 12th year of his age.

1701. The brass coin of Ireland, was by proclamation reduced to its current rate.

The city of Dublin gave a splendid entertainment to the Duke and Duchess of Anjou, at the Tholose, at which the several corporations marched through the city.

Peace was concluded between Denmark and Sweden.

An act was passed in England declaring a Protestant successor.

King Philip arrives at Barcelona.

The King of Sweden passes the Dunna, and fell on the Saxon army.

The Pope died in October.

The King of Spain died.

Clement XI. was chosen Pope.

The Duke of Anjou was declared King of Spain.

A new ministry was chosen in England.

The Earl of Orford, Lord Somers and Lord Halifax, were impeached, tried and acquitted.

Prince Eugene marches into Italy, and attempts to take Cremona.

James II., King of England, who succeeded his brother Charles II., in 1685, died at St. Germain, in France.

The pretended Prince of Wales was owned by the court of France.

The English nation were exasperated at the French, and expressed their abhorrence to the pretender, by their addresses, by which the pretended prince of Wales was attained.

King William III. was thrown from his horse February 21st, when his collar bone was broken, and this hastened his dissolution which occurred at Kensington, March 8, 1701, worthy of a life as immortal as his fame. The city of Dublin in grateful commemoration of their late deliverance, by the conduct and valor of King William III., erected his statue on Horseback, in brass, on the college-green, bearing the following inscription: The city of Dublin erected this statue to William the Third, King of Great Britain, France and Ireland, on account of their religion being preserved their laws restored, and their liberty defended by him.

1702. Queen Anne was proclaimed and on June 21, 1702, was crowned Queen of England.

War was declared against France.

Doctor Michael Boyle, Archbishop of Armagh, and Primate of all Ireland, died in the 93d year of his age.

The union of England and Scotland was proposed.

The Earl of Marlborough was made commander-in-chief of the English forces. He was taken prisoner by the French but made his escape.

The Elector of Bavaria declares for France. (To be continued.)

Furniture.

STAFFORD BRYER,
DEALER IN FURNITURE, WALL PAPER and HOUSE-HOLD DECORATIONS.
Gold Wall Papers
New Patterns, 10c. a roll.

56 Thames Street.
A NEW LINE OF

CARPETS
—AT—
M. Cottrell's.
NEW STYLES IN
FURNITURE!
NEW LINE OF
APER HANGINGS.
Furniture of all Descriptions, Carpets, Oil Cloths and Mattings.

M. COTTRELL,
COTTRELL BLOCK,
Next to the Post Office.
Do You Want
SOFAS, LOUNGES, BABY CHAIR or any Upholstered Furniture?
—CALL AT—28 JOHN ST.,

Next to the Post Office.
Furniture Repairing, Mattresses Made up, Window Shades Put Up, Carpets Laid and Cleaned, &c.

GEO. NASON.
DON'T FAIL Securement of the special bargains in every department of my very large stock of PICTURES, FRAMES, WALL POCKETS, EASELS, BRACKETS, &c. everything at a large discount during February.

W. U. ARNOLD,
12 Broadway.
HAZARD & HORTON,
42 CHURCH ST. carry on the Cabinet and Upholstery Business in all its Branches, and have always on hand a fine assortment of
FURNITURE
of the latest styles. Call and examine overstock.

NOTICE.
The finest lot of TABLES in the city can be seen at 14 MILL STREET.
TABLES FOR $1.50
are a leader. None better or cheaper for the same price. Tables for $2.50, $3.50 and so on, all new patterns, will be in on March 15.

Couches, Sofa Beds and Bed Lounges, Furniture Coverings at all prices.
A few yards of India Silk left at $1.50, 33-inches wide. Large Curtains from 60c. a pair up. Silk Stripes $8.50.
Window Shades, &c. complete. Shades made to order. Pillows at $1.25 a pair at

H. J. JONES,
14 and 18 Mill Street

Must Be Sold!
30 HORSES,
50 Carriages
—AND—
HARNESS of all kinds.

Now is the time to get a team cheap, as the season is broke and I have no use for them.

Carriages both new and Second-Hand
New Leather Top Buggy, Box or Phaeton, only $85.
Pony Team complete, $125.
Call and see the goods I mean to sell

Geo. P. Lawton,
TOURO STREET.

FRENCH
SOLIATION CLAIMS.
A Bill is before Congress to extend time for filing French Soliation Claims one year. will take and prosecute all claims upon the terms upon which I filed claims of about two million dollars in 1885 and 1886. Call or address
A. E. ALLEN,
31 Equitable Building, Boston, Mass.

Clothing.
WM. H. ASHLEY & Co.,
The popular and reliable dealers, again present for inspection a stock of MEN'S, YOUTHS', BOYS'
—AND—
CHILDREN'S CLOTHING, —IN THE—
LATEST STYLES
—AND AT—
LOWEST PRICES.
20 South Main St., Borden's Block
FALL RIVER, MASS.

JOHN ALDERSON,
MERCHANT TAILOR,
Franklin Street,
ONE DOOR ABOVE THAMES STREET.
Ladies' Cloaks, Ulsters and Walking Coats a specialty.
Licenses of every description made to order

SPRING
CLOTHING!!
Already Received, a large line of Clothing
—FOR—MEN, YOUTHS,
& BOYS.
Also a new line of MEN'S
NECKTIES
—AND—
SCARFS.

J. E. Seabury,
218 & 220 Thames-st.

Special Bargains!
For the next 30 days we offer our entire line of Fall and Winter Woolens Comprising the best goods and styles to be found in England and domestic factories. It is percent less than our regular price. We do it in order to make room for our Spring and Summer styles, which we will receive about Feb. 15. We guarantee the makeup of our goods to be the best and to give general satisfaction.

McLennan Brothers,
184 Thames Street,
MERCURY BUILDING.

HENRY D. SPOONER
TAILOR, REMOVED
TO 128 THAMES STREET.

REMOVAL!
I have removed my Trunk & Harness Business to store formerly occupied by T. G. S. Turner, opposite the Boston Store, where I shall make a specialty of the sale of Trunks and Traveling Bags of every variety.

HARNESS MAKING AND RE-PAIRING
In all its branches, and Carriage Trimming.
Harness Snaps at half-price. Heavy Express Harnesses in Nickel and Brass a specialty.

John McCarty,

Scaly Skin Diseases
The steel shipbuilding industry of Great Britain bears a somewhat similar relation to the iron and steel industries of that country as railroad building does to the iron and steel industries of this country, especially in its effect on prices. It is well, therefore, to carefully note the course of this important British industry in any calculations based on the condition of the iron and steel trades of Great Britain. Last year was the busiest year in the history of shipbuilding in the United Kingdom, the enormous tonnage of 1,250,000 tons having been launched. The present year began with well-filled order books by nearly all the leading shipbuilding firms, but since the first of the year there has been a noticeable dearth of new orders, concerning which the London Economist for March 1st has the following to say:
"There is no doubt that the placing of new shipbuilding contracts has been with a distinct check. There was evidence of that in January; but the experiences of February emphasize the fact that a very complete pause has fallen upon the industry. Reports from all the leading ports in the United Kingdom agree that not only have there been few orders, but that there are hardly any inquiries in the market. Of course, there is still a great quantity of work in hand, but the men generally are working better now, and vessels are being turned out so rapidly that, unless fresh orders fall in, vacant stocks will be not uncommon at a comparatively early period. The decline in freights and the advance in material and costs as compared with a year ago constitute two serious differences for even the most enterprising builder or shipowner to face. Modern equipped steamers are still earning fair returns, and were the current dividends assured for a few years more those interested would have little to grumble at; but that is exceedingly doubtful in view of the rate at which tonnage is being, and for months yet is likely to be, put into the water. Great prices to come back substantially work might come out; and in the last week or two there has been a disposition shown in some centres to shade down quotations. It is reported that a Scotch firm has taken a small contract at 10 per cent. below what was asked four months ago, but the instance must be regarded as in the meantime exceptional. There can be no such general reduction until material gets cheaper, and steel makers are existing that as strongly as the copper. How long they will be able to hold out remains to be seen. Merchants look for an early conclusion, as this week they are offering both English and Scotch steel plates for delivery on the Clyde at 55s. less 5 per cent., which represents a substantial drop from the top prices quoted a month ago."
The Scotch shipbuilding returns for the last month show that a larger amount of tonnage was launched than in any previous February. The total was 18,888 tons, of which 17,000 tons of which 17,000 tons, of 21 vessels, fell to the Clyde. At the commencement of the year the Clyde shipbuilders had 160 vessels, for 300,000 tons, in hand, and to date they have launched 100 vessels of 57,220 tons. In the two months there can not have been more than 6,000 tons or so booked, so that at present the work in hand is about 50,000 tons less than it was in December last.
—Philadelphia Bulletin.

THE English Red Coats.
When in 1841, the Duke of Wellington asked Lord Stanhope, then war minister, as to when the English army first wore red, he was told that the custom dated from the time of Charles II. The Duke thought that it was earlier, and Lord Stanhope said that he was right, and that the commonwealth army wore red. This, however, was not exactly the case, and the statement was wrong in more than one respect. Maj. Gen.
Harold Dillon, in an article in Colburn's United Service Magazine, shows when this color was first adopted.
As early as the campaign in Spain, in 1557, in support of Peter the Cruel, and also in the following reign of Richard II, the English soldier appears to have been in white with a red cross of St. George on his breast and back. At Agincourt, in 1415, the English archers wore a red cross on their surcoats, and a red cross on their surcoats, and with their hose laced, evidently to give them greater freedom of action. Caps of boiled leather and of wicker work crossed with bands of iron constituted their finest head pieces. It was only after a long campaign, or series of campaigns, that the ordinary soldier could provide himself with portions of defensive armor.

During the War of the Roses the banners of the respective leaders would be the chief distinctions in the armies, all speaking one tongue and being of one race. However, in 1541 there is evidence of red being adopted, for a small number of men at least, when a contingent for the army of the king of France, the Earl of Warwick, was sent from Rye, dressed in red coats. In 1570 a detachment of fifteen men sent from Canterbury for the Cadiz expedition, and others for the Cadiz expedition, were sent with red coats. It was not until 1572, however, that the red coat was adopted as the uniform of the English soldier. At that time the army was small, and the king's household was the only body of men in the army.
The red coat was adopted as the uniform of the English soldier. At that time the army was small, and the king's household was the only body of men in the army. The red coat was adopted as the uniform of the English soldier. At that time the army was small, and the king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the English soldier. At that time the army was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's household was the only body of men in the army. The red coat was adopted as the uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of
men in the army. The red coat was
adopted as the uniform of the English
soldier. At that time the army was
small, and the king's household was the
only body of men in the army. The red
coat was adopted as the uniform of the
English soldier. At that time the army
was small, and the king's household was
the only body of men in the army. The
red coat was adopted as the uniform of
the English soldier. At that time the
army was small, and the king's house-
hold was the only body of men in the
army. The red coat was adopted as the
uniform of the English soldier. At that
time the army was small, and the king's
household was the only body of men in
the army. The red coat was adopted as
the uniform of the English soldier. At
that time the army was small, and the
king's household was the only body of men in the

